

East droplights have square lower corners and not original

West (drawn centred height) rounded and are original